RESOLUTION

DICDICAN, J.:

Submitted to this Court for resolution is the Motion for Reconsideration¹ filed by the respondent herein praying for the reversal of this Court's Decision² promulgated on July 23, 2014.

Assessing anew the basis of this Court's questioned decision in the light of the arguments raised and discussed in the motion for reconsideration, we find no cogent reason to reconsider the assailed decision. The motion has not raised any new or substantial ground or reason that would call for the upturning of our findings. The grounds or issues raised in the said motion for reconsideration had already been passed upon by us when we rendered the decision sought to be reconsidered. Discussing again now the ratio decidendi of our decision would be to belabor the issues ad infinitum.

 Acting Junior Member per Office Order No. 461-14-ABR dated November 3, 2014.

WHEREFORE, in view of the foregoing premises, we hereby DENY the aforementioned motion for reconsideration filed in this case.

SO ORDERED.
